

Acceptable Nomination Format for Awards Due August 15, 2022

Award Nomination for:

- Fellow
- Special Recognition Award
- Outstanding Contribution to Rangeland Management
- Outstanding Achievement
- Outstanding Young Range Professional

The nomination packet is limited to a maximum of five (5) typewritten pages.

- Name, address, and SRM membership status
- Education
- Work experience
- Recent activities: Civic or other
- Membership and significant activities in (other) professional societies
- Society for Range Management activities
- Awards and other recognition received
- Major contributions to rangeland management or section

In addition to the above, the Special Recognition Award requires the following:

- Ranching experience, if applicable to range management, accomplishments made on the land.
- Activities with FFA, 4-H, SWCD, and livestock or wildlife associations.
- Other interest and support to various programs and organizations directly or indirectly promoting range management.
- List, define, and explain the nominee's contribution to rangeland management and clearly identify why these accomplishments qualify the nominee for special recognition.